GRIEF SUPPORT MEETING

Last Thursdays of every month at Christ
The King, Kahului. Contact Lucy Peros for

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time February 19, 2012

As hard as it may be for us to forgive others, it may be even more difficult to believe that we ourselves can be forgiven. We keep remembering that we don't deserve forgiveness. And we are right.

The paralyzed man in today's Gospel did nothing to merit mercy. We don't even know if he believed in Jesus! Jesus forgave his sins—not because he deserved forgiveness, but in order to manifest God's astounding, even unbelievable, mercy.

Paul tells us that Christ is the “Yes” who faithfully fulfills “the promises of God” to us. He fulfills the new promise of God in Isaiah to “wipe out your offenses” and remember our sins no more. He fulfills the words of the psalm, having pity on us and healing us, though we have sinned against Him. Our response must be to glorify God with our resounding “Amen! Amen!”
